

ECCO Grocery Bag Sunday Response

“You are to share your food with the hungry, to provide the poor wanderer with shelter, and when you see the naked, to clothe him.”
Isaiah 58:7

Dear Friends,

I am grateful to our congregation for your response to our first East Cooper Community Outreach (ECCO) Grocery Bag Sunday collection. We will receive food again this coming Sunday, so please bring your bags and add them to the collection of bags in the chancel area of the church. We will deliver the food next Wednesday. You can also drop off food during the week and leave the bags on the side porch.

This Sunday a speaker from Thornwell Home for Children will be here to bring us a “minute for missions” and our worship service will focus on “food insecurity.” That is a relatively new term we are hearing often in the news. I realize we have always had folks who have struggled to provide food for their families. With inflation, we all see what food costs today and what a challenge it is for those on a tight budget.

This Wednesday I will attend a prayer Breakfast at ECCO. There is hope of opening a satellite distribution site here in McClellanville where folks can receive food and not have to travel in to Mt Pleasant.

Have a blessed week,
Mike
